FARM BUREAU ENDORSES JEFF REISIG FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

"We trust Jeff Reisig to help defend our properties, equipment and families."

WOODLAND, CA — Yolo County Farm Bureau has voted to endorse longtime Yolo County District Attorney Jeff Reisig for re-election.

"Jeff Reisig has proven himself to be a balanced and fair District Attorney who takes crime seriously, including rural crime," said Garrett Driver, President, Yolo County Farm Bureau. "Farms and other rural lands face unique risks, and we trust Jeff Reisig to help defend our properties, equipment and families."

"I'm honored to have the support of the Yolo County Farm Bureau," said District Attorney Reisig. "Farmers are the backbone of our county and our country, and I've always had a deep respect and appreciation for them and what they do. Crimes against farmers and farming businesses hurt the entire community and need to be taken seriously and handled quickly and fairly."

Reisig was first elected District Attorney in 2006 and has been re-elected four times. He started in the District Attorney's Office as a prosecutor in 1997, and as a new lawyer worked for farmers and other agricultural businesses, specializing in labor and employment issues. He has lived and worked in Yolo County for more than 30 years.

Yolo County Farm Bureau is a non-governmental, nonprofit, voluntary membership, California corporation whose purpose is to protect and promote agricultural interests in Yolo County and to find solutions to problems of the farm, the farm home, and the rural community.
